This month's MIX at CMA theme celebrates visionary contemporary artists with an exhibition and live music

Discover modern masterpieces, pop culture trivia and wry humor in Gloria: Robert Rauschenberg & Rachel Harrison, the first exhibition to pair Rauschenberg's iconic combines with the sharp sculpture of internationally acclaimed artist Rachel Harrison. Assistant curator of contemporary art, Beau Rutland, will provide insights on how one artist's vision inspired another with a Curator Talk on the exhibition at 7:30 p.m.

Then, celebrate the last days of summer outside on the museum's South Terrace, with the joyously hypnotic and lightning fast rhythms of Nigerien rock star's Tal National. In addition to being praised by the New York Times as one of the top ten albums of 2013 (alongside Lorde and David Bowie), Tal National's openhearted vision very deliberately includes musicians from Niger's various ethnic cultures, making each song a fusion and a coalition.

ACTIVITIES

Make It! Combines

Robert Rauschenberg created his signature 'combine' style by using everyday objects and artistic materials together to create works of art. Try it out by adding to our collaborative combine. Check it out on the lawn.

MIX Mashup: How Do You See It?

Share your vision and meet new friends. Stop by the Mashup table to get a location, time and prompts, then head over to your assigned artwork to get the conversation going.

About the Cleveland Museum of Art

The Cleveland Museum of Art is renowned for the quality and breadth of its collection, which includes more than 63,000 artworks and spans 6,000 years of achievement in the arts. The museum is a significant international forum for exhibitions, scholarship and performing arts and is a leader in digital innovations. One of the top comprehensive art museums in the nation, recognized for its award-winning Open Access program and free of charge to all, the Cleveland Museum of Art is located in the University Circle neighborhood.

The museum is supported in part by residents of Cuyahoga County through a public grant from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture and made possible in part by the Ohio Arts Council (OAC), which receives support from the State of Ohio and the National Endowment for the Arts. The OAC is a state agency that funds and supports quality arts experiences to strengthen Ohio communities culturally, educationally and economically. For more information about the museum and its holdings, programs and events, call 888-CMA-0033 or visit cma.org [1].
